virtual grooming session $97

Are you ready for a new hairstyle? Maybe you've had your current style for a while, and know it is time for a change. Maybe you are thinning and don't know what to do. Maybe you just want to send me some current pictures, and let me do my thing of sending you suggestions to help you look your very best. Whatever the situation, I am here to help!

Upon purchasing the service, I will request two pictures: a front and side shot of your head. I will also want your input if you have a style in mind, or know what you're looking for. Once I have the information I need, I will go to work and send you 10 to 15 hairstyles I think will not only compliment your face and personal style, but look incredible, too. All styles will work with your unique hair texture, thickness and hairline. After you review the photos and share your thoughts, we will choose "the style". In addition, I will help you find a stylist, discuss hair products, facial hair options and grooming tools. The end result is you looking great and feeling sexy, my friend!

Have you been online dating for a while now with limited or no luck? Does it seem as though all the women you are "really" interested in don't respond? Feeling down in the dumps because it isn't working out like you hoped it would? Well, it's not you... it's your profile! This one-of-a-kind program is getting rave reviews from countless guys in your situation. Let's be honest for a moment. Internet dating is the hottest thing going right now; however, it can be frustrating and discouraging if you aren't meeting the women you want to meet. Sure, you will get the occasional email from the pretty lady in South Africa, but in case you haven't realized yet... she probably isn't real. We hope you didn't send her money for a plane ticket yet!

All joking aside, this program will analyze your current profile for content, profile pictures and overall feel. Aspects that you need to keep in mind: (1) your subject line matters greatly, (2) the email you send also matters a great deal, and (3) no one is totally honest with their answers and description. So, how will we help you?

- We will help you select the right profile picture. If you don't have a good one to choose from, we will tell you how to take one.
- We will modify your profile's content and help you paint the best picture of yourself possible.
- We will also coach you on how to respond, and what to say in order to get your email read.

I'm not sure if you know this or not, but attractive women on dating sites get hundreds of emails a day. She only opens the ones with clever subject lines. "Nice boobs", "You're Super Hot" or my favorite "Damnnnnnnnnnn" will not get you a date or a reply. It may, however, get you "blocked". Don't waste any more time – come talk to us! We won't tell if you do! After purchasing the service, you will receive several emails, including an introductory email initiating the program.
